

To the Members of the California State Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1709 without my signature.

This bill is unnecessary since nothing in current law prohibits a district from creating their own nonmonetary incentives for students today, even in the absence of this measure.

For this reason, I am unable to sign this bill.

Sincerely,

Arnold Schwarzenegger